Report of Select Committee on the Indian Wireless Telegraphy Bill Page 55

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 13 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to regulate the possession of wireless telegraphy apparatus was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 23rd February 1902:—

We, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to regulate the possession of wireless telegraphy apparatus was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us, to the House.

Clause 1.—In reference to the opinion expressed in the debate on the motion to refer the Bill to Select Committee that as, save in the provision for confiscation contained in this clause the penalties here laid down are wholly wrong, we have reduced the amount of the fine which may be imposed, and have abolished the penalty of imprisonment.

Similarly, in sub-clause (2), we have made no amendment to secure that confiscation shall only be ordered in the case of a conviction.

We think that the power to direct payment of money owed so far as the Licensing Fee is concerned should be given to those officers of the Police. We have accordingly amended sub-clause (4) of this clause so as to read and have placed in it a more appropriate phrase as a separate clause numbered clause 3.

Clause 2.—We have amended the clause so as to restrict the power of search to the making of searches by day only.

Clause 3.—We have inserted a new entry in sub-clause (2) to give power to make a note requiring a dealer or manufacturer to limit on the production of a licence by an existing provision to proper cases.

5. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 11th February 1912.

6. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that it be passed in the amended form.

L.A. BILL No. 2 OF 1912.

[AS AMENDED BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE.]

(Words printed in italics indicate the amendments suggested by the Committee.)

A Bill to regulate the possession of wireless telegraphy apparatus.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the possession of wireless telegraphy apparatus in British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1912.
(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British India.

Enactment.

2. It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

3. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context,—
(1) "wireless communication" means the sending, transmitting or receiving of telegrams, telephones or other communications by means of electricity or otherwise without the use of wires or other continuous electrical connection between the transmitting and the receiving apparatus;
(2) "wireless telegraphy apparatus" means any apparatus, appliance, instrument or material used or capable of use in wireless communication, and includes any article contained in any case under section 10 to be wireless telegraphy apparatus, but does not include any such apparatus, appliance, instrument or material, machinery used for other electrical purposes, unless it has been specially designed or adapted for wireless communication or for use as such apparatus, appliance, instrument or material specially so designed or adapted, nor any article contained in any case under section 10 to be wireless telegraphy apparatus; and
(3) "prohibited" means prohibited by rules made under section 10.

Publication of provisions of wireless telegraph act, and rules made thereunder.

4. The Governor General in Council may by rules made under this Act exempt any person or any class of persons from the provisions of this Act either generally or subject to prescribed conditions, or in respect of specified wireless telegraphy apparatus.
5. The telegraph authority constituted under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, shall be the authority competent to issue licences in pursuance of section 10 to be wireless telegraphy apparatus under this Act, and may issue licences in such manner, on such conditions and subject to such variation as may be prescribed.
6. (1) Whoever possesses any wireless telegraphy apparatus in violation of the provisions of section 3 shall be punished, in the case of the owner of a licensed or prohibited station, with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or in the case of any other person, with fine which may

(B) For the purposes of this section a Court may presume that a person possesses wireless telegraphy apparatus if such apparatus is made his defensible charge, or is found in any premises or place over which he has effective control.

(C) If at the trial of an offence under this section . . . the accused is convicted . . . the Court shall decide whether any apparatus in respect of which an offence has been committed should be confiscated, and, if it so decides, may order confiscation accordingly.

2. (1) A Magistrate, or a Magistrate of the first class or a District Magistrate of the second class specially empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, may issue a warrant for the search, at any time between sunset and sunrise, of any building, vessel or place in which he has reason to believe that any wireless telegraphy apparatus, in respect of which an offence is committed under section 3 has been concealed, is kept or concealed.

(2) The officer to whom a search warrant under sub-section (1) is addressed may enter any building, vessel or place mentioned in the warrant and seize any wireless telegraphy apparatus in respect of which he has reason to believe an offence under section 3 has been committed.

3. All wireless telegraphy apparatus confiscated under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 2, and all wireless telegraphy apparatus having an ascertainable owner shall be the property of the Government General in Council.

4. A Court enforcing a fine as provided for any offence under section 5 or under the rules made under section 15 may direct that the amount of the fine or any part of it shall be paid to the person of authority to be notified for the benefit of the Indian State Broadcasting Service.

15. (1) The Government General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) determining that any article or class of article shall be treated as wireless telegraphy apparatus for the purposes of this Act;

(b) the acquisition of persons or classes of persons under section 4 from the provisions of this Act;

(c) the nature of and the conditions governing the issue, renewal, suspension and cancellation of licences, the form of licences, and the payments to be made for the issue and renewal of licences;

(d) the maintenance of records containing details of the acquisition and disposal by sale or otherwise of wireless telegraphy apparatus possessed by dealers in wireless telegraphy apparatus;

(e) the conditions governing the sale of wireless telegraphy apparatus by dealers in and manufacturers of such apparatus; and

(f) determining the authority referred to in . . . section 3.

(3) In making a rule under this section the Government General in Council may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten hundred rupees.

16. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise the doing of anything prohibited under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, and no person acting under this Act shall authorise any person to do anything for the doing of which a licence or permission under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, is necessary.

B. C. GUPTA.

Secretary to the Government of India.
